Coast Kids 2022

We love working with students from our local elementary schools each year to produce this special feature. This year we had students from seven schools take part. Children from 17 classes created the ads in this feature – that’s 394 students from Grades 1 through 7.

Each student was asked to become a member of our production team and create the ads for each of our clients. Now you will only see 22 pieces of art on the following pages, but the rest will be posted on the walls of the businesses who participated and given to each of the students to take home.

In addition to this notoriety, we also donated 15 per cent of all ad sales to each class to thank them for the great work they did in becoming a part of our local Coast Reporter work force for a day.
